

WSNC Community Programs & Engagement Broadcasts

January – December 2013

January

January 7, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 910, host Calvin Patterson featured an interview with Matt Liner, Band Director at Ronald Reagan High School in Winston-Salem who explained the upcoming City of the Arts Jazz Festival. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

January 14, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 911, host Calvin Patterson is joined by members of the local Nuluti Equani Ehi tribe who talked about their experiences and history. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

January 21, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 912, host Calvin Patterson sits down with Ed McNeil, director of the Winston Salem Marketing and Communication Department. Mr. McNeil talked about the ways in which his department is improving the way the city of Winston Salem is marketed throughout the state and country. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

January 28, 2013- Program Director, Jack Bonney conducted an interview with Beth Hinesley from Carolina Donor Services. The interview was pre-recorded to air once a week leading up to National Donor month which took place on February 14, 2013. During the interview we discussed the importance of being an organ/tissue donor as Beth discussed statistics and shared some success stories about organ/tissue donation. The interview lasted about 10 to 15 minutes long. A digital copy of this interview is located on the computer of the Program Director in office 112.

January 28, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 913, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Chantal Wesley, Transportation Demand Manager for the Piedmont Authority Rapid Transit (PART). Ms. Wesley talked about the many advantages of using public transportation through PART. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

February

February 4, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 914, host Calvin Patterson is joined by local food writers and cooking teachers Nancy McDermot and Jackie Crawford. On this episode they discuss the art of making cakes. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

February 11, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 915, host Calvin Patterson interviewed the director and founder of the International Institute of African Studies and Knowledge, Yeyefini Efunbolade. Mr. Efunbolade talked about the Institute's effort to bring about self-empowerment and healing to the community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

February 18, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1001, host Calvin Patterson sits down with Al Perry and Jennifer Stevenson from the Winston Salem writers association. The two discuss their organizations approach to promoting writing within the local community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

February 25, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1003, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Eric At, Chief Operating Officer for United Way of Forsyth County. Mr. At discussed the many ways in which the United Way is involved in improving the local community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

March

March 4, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1004, this is part one of a two part show that featured Calvin Patterson interviewing Reverend Willard Bass and Lois Cricket Mendezhoff from the Institute for Dismantling Racism. The three discuss how race and ethnicity can impact a community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

March 7, 2013- The premiere episode of "Ram Radio," a new program in where WSSU student host Kiara Wilson (Communications Major/Junior) interviews faculty, students, and staff that are making a difference on campus. For the inaugural episode Kiara conducted an interview with Dr. Lenora Campbell, the associate dean of the Nursing Department. During the interview Dr. Campbell talked about the new doctoral program in Nursing practice. Kiara also interviewed SU Radio DJ & Winston Salem State's resident student DJ, Deshawn Turner. Deshawn discussed how he became interested in DJ'ing and how busy he is with his many DJ gigs. Both interviews lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 - 6:30 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the "Ram Radio" folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

March 11, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1004, this is part two of a two part show that featured Calvin Patterson interviewing Reverend Willard Bass and Lois Cricket Mendezhoff from the Institute for Dismantling Racism. The three discuss how race and ethnicity can impact a community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

March 21, 2013- The guests for Ram Radio were Dr. Clay Harshaw of the Motorsports Management and Owen Cooks from University Facilities. Dr. Harshaw discussed the unique existence of the Motorsports Management major on campus and the many different opportunities it gives to students. Mr. Cooks talked about the multiple construction ventures that are currently underway across campus. He also discussed the importance of maintaining a clean/sustainable campus. Both interviews lasted 20-25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30-6:30 pm. Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the "Ram Radio" folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

March 25, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1006, host Calvin Patterson sits down with Daryl Little, CEO of Micro Enterprise Loan Program. Mr. Little talked about his organization's efforts to spread financial education throughout the local community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

March 27, 2013- Program Director, Jack Bonney conducted an interview with local Wake Forest film students Kelly McKenna and Michele Faris about their documentary "Legitimate Child." The film was recently selected to screen at the Riverrun film festival and since WSNC is a media sponsor, the station decided to host interviews with local film directors whose films would be featured at the festival. This film dealt with the history of the Safe Bus Company, a local bus company that existed during the mid-twentieth century in Winston Salem. Ms. McKenna & Faris discussed how they came up with the subject matter, issues they came across during filming, and their hope that people come out to see the film during the festival. The interview lasted around 15 minutes in length. The interview was pre-recorded and aired on March 28th at 6:30 pm. A digital recording of the interview is located on the Program Directors computer in Room 112.

March 28, 2013- The guests for Ram Radio were Dr. Muaka of the Swahili & Study Abroad Program & Coach Inez Turner of the Women's Track & Field Team. Dr. Muaka discussed the many study abroad opportunities that exist for students, while Coach Turner talked about the current track team and her background as an Olympic runner for Jamaica. Both interviews lasted around 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30- 6:30 pm. A digital recording of the interviews is located in the "Ram Radio" folder on the computer in the Production Room (Room 104-B).

April

Empowering You Episode 1302, featured representatives of the Echo Network, Creative Corridors Coalition, and the Forsyth County Historic Resources Commission who discuss how non-profit organizations can work together in the community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

April 4, 2013- The guests for Ram Radio were Carol Davis of the Enterprise Center and Guila Cooper of the School of Health Sciences and Health Disparities. Ms. Davis discussed the many functions the Enterprise Center serves and the many initiatives that are in the works. Ms. Cooper discussed the upcoming Health Disparities Conference taking place in mid-April. Both interviews lasted around 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30- 6:30pm. A digital recording of the interviews is located in the 'Ram Radio" folder on the computer in the Production Room (Room 104-B).

April 8, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1117, host Calvin Patterson spoke with Natasha Gore, Executive Director of the Echo Network, who discussed her organization's efforts to build a better community by fostering relationships. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

April 9, 2013- Program Director, Jack Bonney conducted an interview with local Wake Forest film students/directors Hillary Pierce and Peter Corolla. Their film "The One Who Builds," was recently selected to screen at the Riverrun film festival and since WSNC is a media sponsor, the station decided to host interviews with local film directors whose films would be featured at the festival. The film centers around Dr. Omer, who runs a refugee resettlement organization in Greensboro, North Carolina. The interview lasted about 15 minutes. A digital recording of the interview is located on the Program Directors computer in Room 112.

April 11, 2013 – The guests for Ram Radio were Dr. Kathy Stitts of the University College & Lifelong Learning Center and Winston Salem State student Keenan Easter. Dr. Stitts discussed the many academic services that the University College and Lifelong Learning center provide to students on campus, both traditional & non-traditional students. Keenan Easter came on to discuss his recent nomination as Mr. WSSU. Both interviews lasted around 20- 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 – 6:30 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

April 15, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1122, host Calvin Patterson conducted an interview with William Myner Barnett of the Forsyth County Environmental Affairs Department. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

April 18, 2013 – The guests for Ram Radio were Sigrid Hall-Pittsley of the Community Garden and Dr. Duren-Whitfield, the faculty advisor for the Go Green initiative on campus. Both interviews centered on issues of the environment in celebration of Earth Day. Sigrid Hall-Pittsley discussed the community garden on campus. Dr. Duren-Whitfield discussed her role as faculty advisor to the Go Green initiative and in particular student Daniel Crudup who is the official Go Green Ambassador for Winston Salem State University. Both interviews lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 – 6:30 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

April 22, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1123, host Calvin Patterson met with Karen McNeil Miller, the President of the Kate B. Reynolds Charitable Trust, who explained her organization. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

April 25, 2013 – The guests for Ram Radio were professor Andre Minkins on the English Department, but whose main role is head of the Drama organization, and sophomore student Olivia Sedwick who was recently elected the Vice President for UNC Student Government. Professor Minkins discussed his career in theatre along with discussing the role of theatre on campus. Olivia Sedwick discussed her campaign and recent nomination as the vice president for the entire UNC Student Government association. Both interviews lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 – 6:30 pm A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

April 29, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1201, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Author Craig T. Greenly who discussed his book about the 1970 plane crash that killed the majority of the Marshall University football team. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

May

May 2, 2013 – The guests for Ram Radio were Dr. Deborah Farmer of the Gerontology Department along with student Jasmine Lowery, and Dr. Jessica Bailey the department head for the School of Business and Economics. Dr. Farmer and her student Jasmine Lowery discussed the Gerontology Department on campus and how they participate annually in the Senior Games. Dr. Bailey discussed the brand new trading room that is now housed within the department of Business & Economics. Both interviews lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 – 6:30 pm A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

May 6, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1303, host Calvin Patterson sat down with Cathy Sigler, Certified Diabetes Educator at Novant Health Diabetes Center who explained her organization's efforts to prevent diabetes in the area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

May 9, 2013 – The guest for the final episode of Ram Radio for the spring 2013 semester was Winston Salem State University Provost, Dr. Brenda Allen. Dr. Allen discussed her many roles as the Provost along with upcoming issues that deal with campus academics, research, tuition and potential budget cuts. Both interview lasted around 52 minutes in length. The program aired from 5:30 – 6:30 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

May 13, 2103 – Empowering You Episode 1020, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Doug Edgeton, President of the Piedmont Research Park who talked about his organization and its plans for the future development of the park. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

May 20, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1021, host Calvin Patterson conducted an interview with Sharon Nelson, the Executive Director for Associated Artists. They discussed ways in which her organization cultivates artistic talent in the Winston-Salem area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

May 27, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1022, host Calvin Patterson’s host was Wendy Looker, Artistic Director of the Piedmont Chamber Singers who talked about the concerts and work the Winston-Salem based organization is doing in the area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

June

June 3, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1101, Tim Grant joined host Calvin Patterson to discuss Tim’s work as the Director for the Winston Salem Parks and Recreation department. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

June 10, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1102, host Calvin Patterson is joined by Winston Salem Mayor Allen Jones to discuss his career and his responsibilities as Mayor. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

June 11, 2013 – An interview was conducted by WSNC smooth jazz DJ Patricia Hall. Patricia interviewed smooth jazz artist, Marion Meadows. The interview was about Marion’s career along with details about his upcoming performance at the Charlotte Uptown Jazz Festival. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The interview was aired on Thursday, June 13th from 7:30 – 8 pm. A digital version of the interview is located in the Production Room (Room 104-B)

June 12, 2013 – Program Director Jack Bonney conducted an interview with Justin Poindexter of the Music Academy of the American South. Justin discussed his career in music, his current role as the Artistic Director for the Music Academy of the American South, and their upcoming festival which will take place the weekend of June 14th. The interview lasted about 15- 18 minutes in length. The program aired on June 13th from 7 – 7 :20 pm. A digital recording of the interview is located in the Program Directors office (Office 112).

June 17, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1103, host Calvin Patterson had representatives from the Carolina Donor Services. Beth Heinsley and George Pingho were the guests, who talked about Carolina Donor Services as a non-profit organization that is responsible for coordinating the organ and tissue donation process in our region. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

June 17, 2013 – An interview was conducted by Dr. Alison Fleming of the WSSU Fine Arts Department. Dr. Fleming interviewed local Winston Salem artist Leo Rucker. Mr. Rucker discussed his career as a local artist and talked a little bit about his upcoming exhibit at the Delta Fine Arts Center. The interview lasted about 10 minutes and it was aired on Thursday, June 19th @ 7pm.

June 24, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1104, host Calvin Patterson is joined by Linda Scales Dark, Juanita Dawkins of the Friends of the Oddfellows Cemetery Incorporated Reclamation Project. They discussed efforts to restore and maintain the historic cemetery in Winston-Salem. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

July

July 1, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1301, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Jo Ellen Carson, Executive Director of Leadership Winston-Salem. She discussed the many ways in which her organization helps to cultivate better leaders within the community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

July 8, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1302 (rebroadcast), featured representatives of the Echo Network, Creative Corridors Coalition, and the Forsyth County Historic Resources Commission who discuss how non-profit organizations can work together in the community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

July 10, 2013 – An interview was conducted between WSNC smooth jazz DJ Patricia Hall and jazz guitarist Matt Marshack. The interview was about Matt's recent recording and his upcoming performance at the Downtown Winston Jazz series, which WSNC is a sponsor of. The interview lasted 10 minutes and is scheduled to air July 20th. A digital copy of the recording is located in the Production Room (Room 104-B)

July 11, 2013 – WSNC was the featured host station for the first weekly BEATS Lunch event sponsored by the United Arts Council of Forsyth County. The event took place at the Milton Rhodes Center for the Arts (251 N. Spruce Street) from 11:30 am – 1:30 pm. WSNC brought a receiver to broadcast the station live at the event along with having a promotional table for members of the community to look at.

July 15, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1303 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson spoke with Natasha Gore, Executive Director of the Echo Network, who discussed her organization's efforts to build a better community by fostering relationships. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

July 22, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 909, host Calvin Paterson sat down with the General Manager of the Children's Theater, Karen McGue. Karen discussed ways in which the Junior League founded organization seeks to provide age-appropriate theater for the children of the area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

July 29, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1304, host Calvin Patterson interviewed Catherine Foster, Executive Director of the New Winston Museum who discussed the mission of the museum and her role in it. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

August

August 5, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 910 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson featured an interview with Matt Liner, Band Director at Ronald Reagan High School in Winston-Salem who explained the upcoming City of the Arts Jazz Festival. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

August 7, 2013 – An interview was conducted by WSNC smooth jazz DJ Patricia Hall. Patricia interviewed smooth jazz artist Melvin Miller. The interview was about Melvin's career and also about his upcoming performance in Winston-Salem at the Corpening Plaza. The performance is a part of the 2013 Downtown Jazz Series, which WSNC is a sponsor of. The interview lasted around 20 minutes in length. The interview was aired on Friday, August 9th at 5:30 pm. A digital version of the interview is located in the Production Room (Room 104-B)

August 12, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 911 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson is joined by members of the local Nuluti Equani Ehi tribe who talked about their experiences and history. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

August 19, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1305, host Calvin Patterson interviews cultural curator Cheryl Harry who discussed her work and her new book about Winston-Salem's African American history. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

August 26, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1306, host Calvin Patterson sat down with Lynn and Nestor Fitzgerald of Monroe, NC to talk about their Christian non-profit organization's efforts to provide toys for underprivileged children in the community. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

August 26, 2013 - An interview was conducted by WSNC smooth jazz DJ Patricia Hall. Patricia interviewed smooth jazz artist Dave Koz. The interview was about Dave's career and also about his upcoming performance at the 2013 John Coltrane International Jazz Festival taking place August 31, 2013 in High Point, NC. WSNC is a sponsor of the festival. Interview was aired on Saturday, August 31st @ 1 pm. A digital version of the interview is located in the Production Room (Room 104-B)

August 29, 2013 - The guests for the first Ram Radio episode of the 2013 Fall Semester were Trae Cotton, Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs and Darrell Jeter the Emergency Management Director for WSSU. Mr. Cotton discussed the housing situation for the upcoming school year along with updates about new Donald Reaves Student Center, which opened earlier in the week. Mr. Jeter discussed the importance of safety on campus and promoted the upcoming Campus Safety Fair schedule for September 4, 2013. Both interviews lasted around 20- 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the "Ram Radio" folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

September

September 2, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1307, host Calvin Patterson talks with the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association Director Dave Goran about the Sportscasters Hall of Fame based in Salisbury, North Carolina. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

September 5, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were Dr. Jack Monell, Corry Colonna, and Abeer Mustafa from the Faculty In Residence Program along with Leslie Winbush and Algenon Cash of the 2013 Entrepreneurial Summit. Dr. Jack Monell, Corry Colonna, and Abeer Mustafa talked about the new Faculty In Residence Program along with other on campus housing issues. Ms. Winbush and Mr. Cash talked about the upcoming Entrepreneur Summit scheduled for September 24th. Both interviews lasted around 20- 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

September 9, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1303 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson sat down with Cathy Sigler, Certified Diabetes Educator at Novant Health Diabetes Center who explained her organization's efforts to prevent diabetes in the area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

September 12, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Michelle Cook from the University Advancement Office. Ms. Cook discussed the importance of fundraising and donating to the University. She also discussed the importance of donating to WSNC as this show was aired during our Fall Fund Drive (September 8 – 15, 2013). The interview lasted about 20 minutes in length. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

September 16, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1117, host Calvin Patterson talks to guest Maria Sanchez Boudy, the Executive Director of the Hispanic Arts Initiative about the work the organization is doing within the Hispanic community Winston-Salem. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

September 19, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Kevin Manns, the Assistant Sports Information Specialist for University Athletics. Mr. Manns discussed the upcoming Fall athletic season along with the importance of WSSU hosting both the CIAA championships in football & volleyball which are both scheduled to take place November 16, 2013. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

September 23, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1308, host Calvin Patterson is joined by Nike and Nikki Roach, founders of the Sixth Sense Health and Wellness Center who talked about their organizations efforts as an all-encompassing wellness center. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

September 26, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were Dr. Richard Moye and WSSU senior Donald Williams from the Sociology Club. They discussed not only what the Sociology Club does, but also the recent Gun Violence Forum that they hosted on campus. The other interview featured Tabatha Mauldin, Irfart Habit, and Kristina Chenault of the WSSU Nursing Department. The three of them discussed their experience at the Raven Knob Boy Scout camp this past summer. Both interviews lasted around 20- 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

September 30, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1116, host Calvin Patterson interviews local Genealogy expert, Ida Keef who discusses the many ways in which people can do research to create a personal family tree. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

October

October 3, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Chelii Broussard, the marketing and promotions coordinator for WSSU. Ms. Broussard discussed the planning process for booking the entertainment for Homecoming along with highlighting the events scheduled for the week. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

October 7, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1020 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson interviewed Doug Edgeton, President of the Piedmont Research Park who talked about his organization and its plans for the future development of the park. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

October 10, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Dr. Corey Walker, Dean for the College of Arts & Sciences. Dean Walker discussed his new position along with his goals and aspirations for the 2013 school year and beyond. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

October 10, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Dr. Corey Walker, Dean for the College of Arts & Sciences. Dean Walker discussed his new position along with his goals and aspirations for the 2013 school year and beyond. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

October 14, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1114 featured Wendy Looker, Artistic Director of the Piedmont Chamber Singers talked to host Calvin Patterson about the work the Winston-Salem based organization is doing in the area. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

October 17, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were Dr. Tennille Presley and Alvin Atkinson. Dr. Tennille Presley discussed her roles as the director for the new Provost Scholars Science Program. Alvin Atkinson discussed his duties as the director for the Center for Community Safety. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

October 21, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1115 featured Janette Carson who talked with host Calvin Patterson by phone to talk about her collection of black memorabilia. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

October 24, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were Dr. Bazemore Walker and Dr. Mae Rodney. Dr. Bazemore talked about the new Science Initiatives Program at WSSU. Dr. Mae Rodney discussed her many roles as the director of Library Services at the O’Kelly Library. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

October 28, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1116 (rebroadcast), featured Ida Keef who discussed how to create a personal family tree. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

October 31, 2013 - The guest for this edition of Ram Radio was Rudy Anderson from the Office of Marketing & Communications. Mr. Anderson discussed the many university activities and community initiatives he is involved with both on and off campus. The interview lasted around 25 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

November

November 4, 2013 – Empowering You Episode 1117 (rebroadcast), host Calvin Patterson talked to guest Maria Sanchez Boudy, the Executive Director of the Hispanic Arts Initiative about the work the organization is doing in Winston-Salem. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm.

Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

November 7, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were Dr. Joti Sekhon and Belinda Tate. Dr. Sekhon discussed her role as the director for International Programs and in particular talked about the many events happening during the upcoming International Education week. Belinda Tate reviewed her role as the director of the Diggs Art Gallery. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

November 11, 2013 - Empowering You Episode 1119, Emmy award winning journalist Allison Payne talked to Calvin Patterson about her career. The program aired from 6 until 6:30 pm. Audio of this interview is available in our audio archive folder located in our Production Room (Room 104-B).

November 14, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were WSSU students Nefertira McGibboney and Jasmine Yancey along with Dr. Maria Merrills. The two students discussed their study abroad experiences. Dr. Maria Merrills promoted an upcoming University wide web series she is producing. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

November 21, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were LaMonica Sloan and Tia and D’Essence from the Red Sea of Sound. LaMonica Sloan discussed her duties at the office of Career Development Services. Students Tia & D’Essence talked about their experience in the University marching band, The Red Sea of Sound. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

December

December 5, 2013 - The guests for this edition of Ram Radio were D’Walla Simmons-Burke and Dr. Gloria Laureano. D’Walla talked about her 20 years of service as the Choral director for the University choir. Dr. Gloria Laureano discussed her many roles as the Dean of Students. Both interviews lasted about 20 minutes in length. The program aired from 6 – 7 pm. A rundown of the questions and program log for this show are available in the Program Directors office (Office 112). Also a digital recording of the interview is saved in the “Ram Radio” folder on the Production Room computer (Room 104-B).

